

Is there a late fee if I do not renew on time?

No. There is no late fee for a late renewal application; however, a license holder is not permitted to sell alcoholic beverages after a license expires. The Department must receive a completed renewal form and full payment no later than thirty (30) days after the license expires. A license holder who does not renew or attempt to renew by thirty (30) days after expiration will not be permitted to renew later and must apply for a new license(s). 804 KAR 4:390.
